19 On June 11, 2019, the Court granted the parties' stipulation allowing defendant Vasile Mereacre
20 to travel from the Southern District of Florida to Toronto, Canada for the purpose of visiting with his 21 family and receiving medical and dental treatment. Dkt. No. 35. The defendant traveled to the Greater 22 Toronto Area, Ontario, Canada on June 13, 2019, and was scheduled to return to Florida today.
23 However, he was unable to get on his returning flight by the United States by Customs and Border
24 Protection ("CBP") because of the above-captioned criminal case and the fact that he did not possess a
25 valid entry document. The defendant informed CBP that he was being supervised by Gary L. Hackett,
26 Senior Pretrial Services Officer in the Southern District of Florida. A CBP officer contacted Officer
27 Hackett to confirm his supervision and pending case in the Northern District of California.

28 In order to return to the United States, the defendant must obtain a document from CBP known

1 as a "Significant Public Benefit Parole." The Federal Bureau of Investigation is working with CBP to 2 complete the paperwork to obtain the document, and undersigned counsel has been informed that it
3 might take up to 30 days for the paperwork to be approved. Therefore, the parties request that the Court
4 modify the defendant's pretrial release conditions as follows:

- 5 1. The defendant shall continue to reside with his parents at 3 Arthur Evans Crescent, Bradford,
6 Ontario, Canada for up to 30 days from the date of this Order.
- 7 2. Once the defendant's travel document has been approved and issued by CBP, the defendant
8 shall return to the Southern District of Florida within 48 hours.
- 9 3. The defendant will contact Pretrial Services Officer Hackett to keep him updated about his 10 travel plans and follow any instructions.
- 11 4. The defendant shall report to Officer Hackett no later than 24 hours upon his return to the 12 United States and shall surrender his passport to the United States District Court.
- 13 5. The parties will file a status memorandum with the Court after the defendant returns to the 14 United States.

The Court FURTHER ORDERS that the defendant shall return to the Southern District of Florida within 48 hours after his travel document has been issued by CBP. The defendant shall Contact Pretrial Services Officer Hackett and follow his instructions, and shall report to him in person no later than 24 hours upon his return to the United States. The defendant shall surrender his passport to the United States District Court at that time.

The COURT ORDERS the parties will file a status memorandum with the Court after the defendant returns to the United States.
